

Celebrating 5 Years of Cedar-IBSi Global Summits

Building a Future-Ready Bank

2026 Global Summit Series

THE BANKING WORLD IS TRANSFORMING. IT'S TIME TO HAVE A FEW CONVERSATIONS. WELCOME TO OUR 2026 SERIES OF SUMMITS.

The “industrial revolution” of the banking sector has accelerated with the advent of AI and the rapid change of demographics. Regulatory runways across the world are maturing, and many more pure digital banks are being set-up. Gen-Z wants everything, including banking instantly. SMEs and corporations can’t succeed without digital transaction banking helping them manage their business. What about next-gen Core? Payments & Lending needs to move to the next level of development. The questions, challenges and opportunities are innumerable.

So, what will the Bank of the Future look like? Will Strategy drive Technology, or will Technology Drive Strategy? It’s time to have a few conversations. Cedar and IBS Intelligence are pleased to announce its 2026 Global Summit Series across 7 cities. Half-Day curated sessions packed with multiple panels that include insightful leaders from banking and technology firms in serious conversations. Panels are moderated by our Senior Partners, all with over two decades of consulting and advisory experience to leading banks and technology firms. Walk away enlightened, or at least more curious about what the future will be and what you can do about it.

Cedar-IBS Intelligence Summits are a great opportunity for panelist to share their insights, for senior bankers in the audience to absorb and reflect, and for technology firms to use this platform to showcase their brands, and potentially meet their next client.

Looking forward to seeing you there.

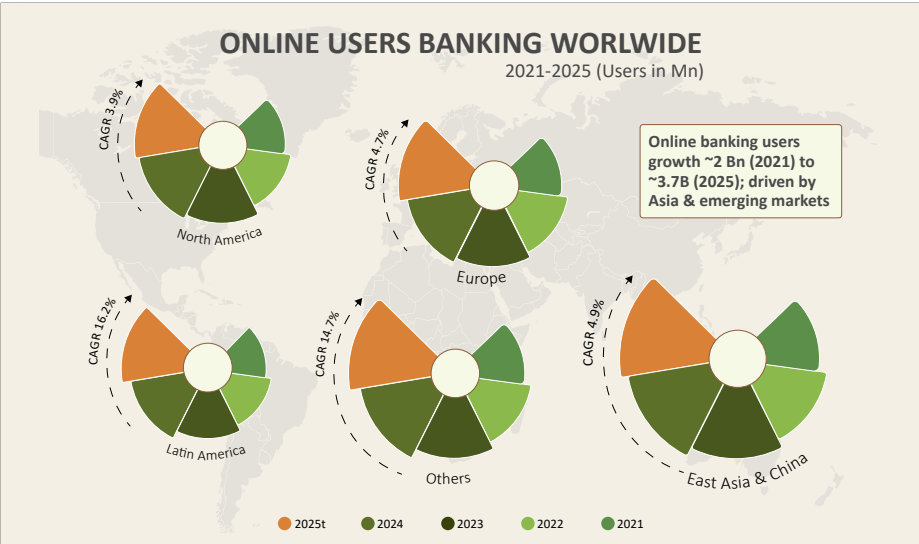

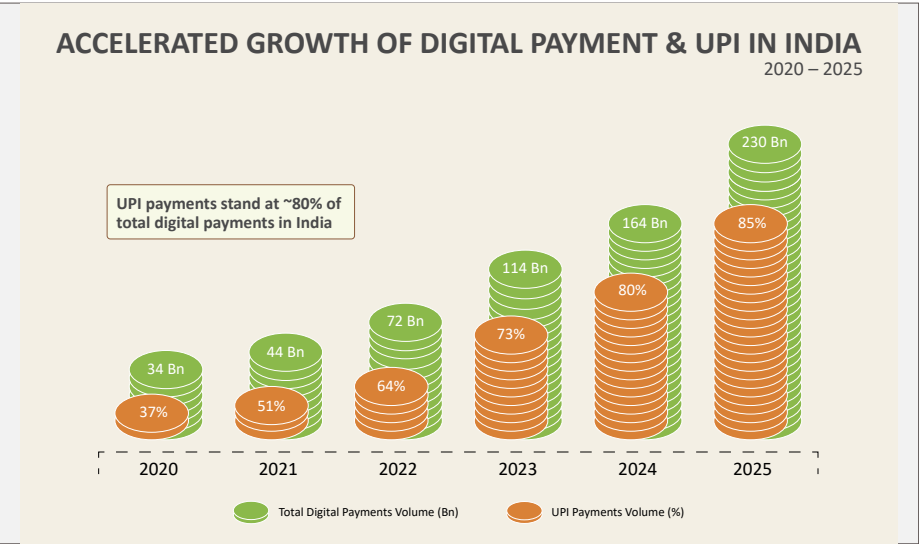

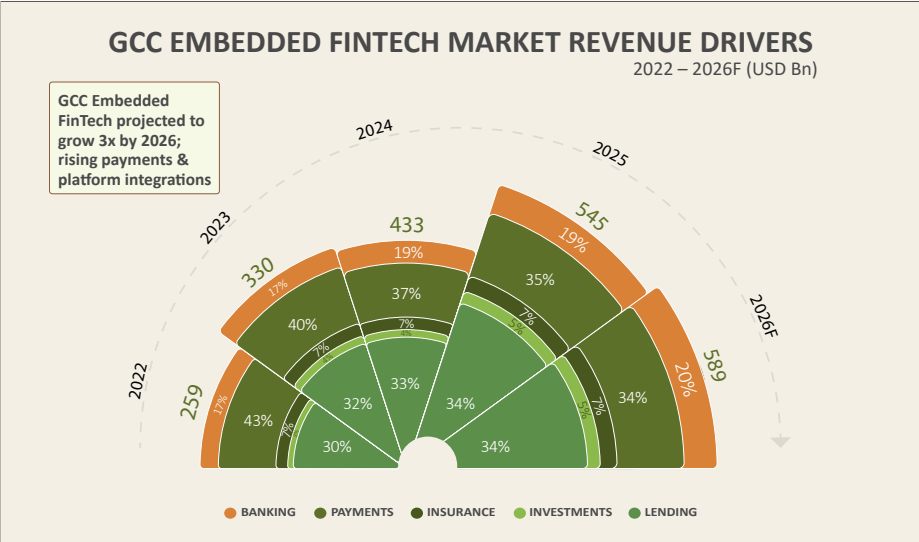

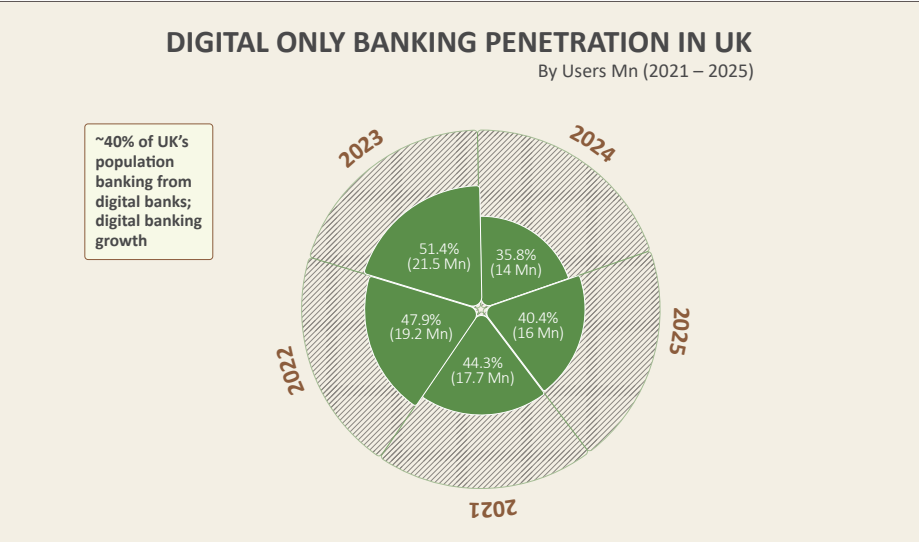

Regards,

DIGITAL POWERED BANKING: BUILDING NEXTGEN ECOSYSTEM

THREE REGIONS | SEVEN CITIES | ONE CONSISTENT MISSION 'BUILDING A FUTURE-READY BANK'

2026 PANEL TOPICS

4 curated Panels per summit.

Panel #1: Future of Banking | A Business Leadership Strategic Perspective

Strategy drives technology, or is it now the other way round? Banking leaders discuss how strategy will evolve as GenAI increasingly augments decision-making, and the organization, skills, and culture required to lead in a human-plus-AI operating model.

Panel #2: Building a Future-Ready Organization | Skills, Culture and Capability

As banking models evolve and institutions prepare for an AI-enabled future, leadership development and the approach to building critical skills are being reimagined. This discussion focuses on the changing HR mandate, encouraging cross-functional development, aligning governance with strategy, and building the skills and mindset required to lead with confidence and agility.

Panel #3: NextGen Transaction Banking | The Digital Value Chain from SMEs to Corporates

Transaction banking is unlocking new efficiencies across SMEs and corporates. This panel explores innovations across payments, trade finance, and cash management, including AI-driven automation and predictive liquidity, and how banks can build seamless digital value chains orchestrated by intelligent workflows.

Panel #4: AI in Action | Pioneering the Next Way of Digital Banking

AI is reshaping banking globally. This session focuses on how GenAI and Agentic AI are moving from pilots to production—driving personalization, operational efficiency, and real-time decisions—while addressing challenges around governance, trust, and scale.

Panel #5: NextGen Retail Banking | Lending, Payments & the Real-Time Economy

The era of waiting for approvals is over. Speed is becoming the new currency of retail banking. This session examines how real-time payments, AI-driven credit, and embedded lending models are transforming retail banking experiences.

Panel #6: NextGen Core | The Key to Being Future-Ready

The NextGen Core is becoming the foundation for agility and innovation. This session explores how modern core platforms enable real-time data access, AI-native architectures, and agent-based services, helping banks stay future-ready.

Panel #7: PE & VC Investing | Fuelling FinTech 2.0 in the Age of AI

Has the FinTech bubble burst—or is FinTech 2.0 just beginning? Investors discuss how PE and VC are backing AI-first financial infrastructure, BankTech platforms, and verticalized GenAI use cases shaping the next phase of financial services.

Panel #8: Reimagining Islamic Banking | Digital, Intelligent, & Shariah-Compliant

Islamic banking in the Middle East is growing rapidly. This panel explores how digitization—including AI-driven advisory and automated Shariah compliance checks—can enhance accessibility while preserving trust and Shariah alignment.
